

UPIU/UPI Stylebook

Quiz 27: Pages 264 - 273

Correct the following sentences, if necessary:

1. The White House said Obama would veto the tax bill when it arrived on his desk.
2. Geology professor Nancy Smith, adjusting her pink skirt, took the podium to give her long-awaited speech on the causes of the earthquake that shook the East Coast in 2011.
3. The Kindle Fire's 6.2.1 update "enhances fluidity and performance [and] improves touch navigation responsiveness," Amazon said on its website Wednesday.
4. West Point was notified of the allegation last week by a lawyer whose client attended the camp in the mid-1980's.
5. A U.S. Air Force plane dropped a pump, fuel and other equipment to the ship, which had been taking on water, TVNZ reported.
6. The youth was arrested on his 21st birthday for driving under the influence.
7. Three of the seven zip codes used in the data-gathering process were incorrect, compromising the study's findings.
8. Yugoslavian President Boris Tadic says he is trying to find a solution to the Kosovo issue that will satisfy Serbian citizens, as well as European Union officials.

9. Correct the following misspellings, if necessary:

- | | |
|-------------------|------------------|
| a. accomplishment | d. occurrence |
| b. ballistic | e. questionnaire |
| c. diptheria | f. surveillance |

10. Write one sentence using the following terms: who/whom