

UPIU/UPI Stylebook

Quiz 22: Pages 214 - 223

Correct the following sentences, if necessary:

1. Smith was criticized for awarding the internship to his Godson, who had not completed the formal application process.
2. Pope Benedict administered holy communion to world leaders during the Vatican's Easter service.
3. Under federal right-to-work laws, workers cannot be forced to join a union.
4. A local street gang is suspected in the robbery of two cars from the Second Avenue impound lot.
5. The Environmental Protection Agency extended the deadline for filing Phase II stormwater reports this quarter.
6. Clashes escalated Friday as Kazakhstan celebrated the 20th anniversary of its independence from Russia.
7. A thorough Spring cleaning may help reduce the allergens that can trigger allergies and asthma in children, a U.S. allergist said.
8. More than 10,000 fans rioted downtown when the Vancouver Canucks lost the semifinal game to the Boston Bruins

Write one sentence correctly utilizing forms of the following terms:

9. Scottish, Scotch:

Which sentence is more correct?

10. a. The senator's son reportedly died in a car accident Friday night.
b. Police reported that the senator's son died in a car accident Friday night.