

UPIU/UPI Stylebook

Quiz 9: Pages 84-93

1. The owner of the small grocery store urged people embargo the large grocery store.
2. The crowd was enthused after the mayor announced the dates for the year's festivals.
3. The necklaces from the two jewelry stores were equally expensive.
4. The new governor insisted that the Executive Mansion be redecorated.
5. A new church held its first services Sunday, during which members said they used ESP to determine the presence of ghosts.
6. The case hinged on whether the man called his brother a "fing moron" in public.
7. Even though the crime occurred in the middle of a crowded shopping center, police said they couldn't find any eyewitnesses.
8. Jim Brown failed to pass his final exam.
9. Margaret Smith said she wasn't fazed by the rumors swirling about her background.
10. As a famous actor, Bob Emmett insisted on the royal treatment wherever he went.